The Center for Educational Innovation (CEI) is a nonprofit education organization located in New York City. As a recognized leader in advancing meaningful educational reforms, CEI's mission is to ensure a quality education for all students. We work to turn around low-performing schools with student-centered innovations and provide life-changing enrichment opportunities to students in under-resourced communities.

CEI provides customized, hands-on support and coaching to principals, teachers, staff, and parents to help meet the unique needs of students. Our experienced staff helps educators become highly effective professionals capable of delivering customized educational programs that result in continuous student growth. We work with all kinds of school—from traditional public schools to public charter schools—to help design, develop, and implement innovative practices in order to create the schools that children need to succeed.

2018 CEI HONOREES

DR. KATHLEEN CASHIN NEW YORK STATE REGENT

Regent Cashin has served the students of New York City with distinction for over 35 years as a teacher, superintendent and regional superintendent. Dr. Cashin has dedicated herself to educating children and ensuring that every child receives an equal opportunity to develop into a contributing member of society.

Dr. Cashin extends her commitment to students and learning at all levels through her service on the NYS Board of Regents.

RICHARD CARRIÓN MANAGING PARTNER, APEX CAPITAL PARTNERS LLC

Richard Carrion comes from one of the most prominent banking families in Puerto Rico. Prior to APEX, he served as a Senior Executive at Banco Popular.

Richard is a member of CEI's Puerto Rico Taskforce, a group of business leaders working for Puerto Rico's recovery.

CAROLINE McCONNIE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, RIMCO LLC

Caroline McConnie has been with Rimco LLC for the last eight years, where she serves as Executive Vice President. Caroline is working with CEI on creating technical career education programs to provide state-of-the-art employment opportunities for young people in Puerto Rico as it recovers from last year's devastating hurricane.
